- Bed & Breakfast in Historic Walkkill Farm Home -

Gorgeous Pond & Majestic Shawangunk Mountain Views!
Just Minutes to Antique Shops, Recreation Excursions, Wineries & Much More!

This marvelous Bed & Breakfast provides the perfect combination of historic charm and modern comfort for guests in search of a memorable New York State retreat. Select from 4 uniquely designed rooms to rent, or reserve the entire vacation Farm Home for up to 10 guests. You'll love the abundant scenery in every direction!

As soon as you arrive at this astounding property, you'll be captivated by the immense peace and quiet that characterizes the silent beauty of the area. The surrounding land is garnished with a blueberry patch, a natural lotus pond, assorted flower and vegetable gardens, and a picturesque tree swing hanging from the 150 year old Weeping Willow. Settled in the shadow of the Shawangunk Mountain Range, this Historic Farm House presents all the simple and rustic characteristics necessary to create a calming ambiance for your stay. The home itself still features some of the original aspects of its constructions in 1796 and is adorned with tasteful decor to signify the Primitive Era in which it was built. In addition to home comforts and classic furnishings, you'll also find modern attributes that add to the appeal of the residence, such as complimentary wireless internet access and charging stations.

Look forward to sipping a warm cup of coffee on the front porch swing, admiring the Black Angus Cattle roaming the pastures on a cool morning. Spend the day exploring, then return to unwind in the cozy abode or read a book next to the dazzling lotus pond. When dinner rolls around, there's no better way to make the most of your pastoral getaway than enjoying a home-cooked recipe at the lovely dining table. Later, gather your loved ones to play a game of cards or watch a movie on the living room tv - quality time at its finest.
